

About Us:

1. CORPORATE PROFILE

Vaaraahi embedded, a embedded software\Hardware design and development Company incorporated in the year 2002 as a part of the Pioneer group of Company –Ros un Group engaged in Steel Manufacturing for the last fifteen years. It was started as Training Institute in the Advanced Technological areas in Electronics and further enhanced its activities towards Design and Product development. Our state of the art Research and Development center ensures that the employees have at their disposal all the resources needed to provide the best possible services to the clients. We aim to provide with a competitive advantage through timely delivery of high quality and cost effective Hardware\Software solution to the clients.

Our Company strives to become a one-stop shop for our clients' entire spectrum of Software/ Hardware Design and Development Information requirements. This ensures that our client can depend on a Single reliable partner for all their aspects of product development requirements.. Our Portfolio of services includes,

- Existing Product Development
- Concept to product development
- Custom Build product development
- Product Re-Engineering
- Adapting new technology in Old products
- Support Services and consulting
- PCB Design Development
- Consulting services for Certification and From Regulatory approvals

We take all efforts to bring the best Technical Professional with complementary skill set, expertise and experience. Our management comprises Executives having Years of experience in the technical aspects of product development based on the latest Technology and make the whole product cost effective. We always employ the services of specialized R & D personnel whose sole purpose is to research in emerging technologies and incorporate them for better solution.

2. MANAGEMENT PROFILE:

The Management of vaaraahi embedded comprise of three members who is taking specific responsible activities in the management side

R.Raghunathan: Management Partner and Head

S.Siddhiq Ahmed: Managing Partner and Technical Director

M.Kannan: Managing Partner and Technical Director